The fact that representatives of the New Haven road have been looking over the country between Portland and Glastonbury with a view to trolley extension, has aroused some of the local business men and other public and the country of the local business men and other public and the country of the local business men and other public and the country of the local business men and other public and the country of the coun his spirited citizens to a realization that unless Middletown is up and do-log Hartford will add the busy town of East Hampton to its already long list of "trolley suburba" which have brought the business men of Hartford so much added revenue.

East Hampton is naturally allied to iddletown, and Middletown should the business center for all this part of the county. That Hartford should reach down and take all the good East Hampton business which rightfully belongs here would be a grievance to local merchants, but they have taken no action thus far to prevent such an occurrence.—Middletown Officers McArthur and Paulhus at 2.30 o'clock Monday morning found three boys in a New Haven freight car in the Milk street yard. When examined at police headquarters ten jack-knives, new, a shiny revolver, three pairs of automobile goggles, a number of plugs of tobacco, several packages of sen-sen and a few broken cigars were turned out of their pockets. The boys first said they had broken into a store in Providence. They told Captain Richmond Monday morning that they enlered a Providence store Saturday night and admitted stealing the articles mentioned except the revolver; that they claimed to have taken from a tramp that was asleep beside the tramp that was asleep beside the

They gave the names of John Hushon, 14, James Harding, 14, and James Cummesky, 15, all of New Bedford. Captain Richmond telephoned the Providence authorities, but there was nothing doing there, no break being known of in that vicinity Friday night as the boys claimed.

and the case continued until Tuesday morning to permit investigation.

Captain Richmond at noon received a telephone message from Sheriff Bliven of Plainfield requesting the local authorities to be on the lookout for three boys who had broken into Kingsley's store in that town Saturday night. The sheriff was told that the trib were locked up. The boys then told Captain Richmond that they had done the trick at Plainfield and falling to successfully beat a ride to New London or this city had walked here, arriving here about $ o'clock Sunday night, and were enjoying a snooze when found and awakened by the officers.

Sheriff Bliven came to this city and ook the boys back to Plainfield, where they will be tried. The court granted the request that the trespass charge be nolled. All three boys stated that they never broke into a place before, but their looks belied their words, as they were a pretty hard looking trio.

JEWETT CITY MAN Wanted by Police-Charles Geer Escaped from Officer.

The police of this town want Charles Geer of Jewett City. Geer is a color-ed man and is wanted for resisting an officer who arrested him on Main street late Saturday night.

Geer had been creating a disturbance by indulging in loud talk after the saloons closed and made flippant remarks to the officer when he warned him to desist. Geer did not take the matter seriously, however, and was on the way to the police station in charge of Officer Ralph Young when he took it into his head that he did not want to go any farther and twisted away from his captor. Incidentally, Geer was advised to do this by some of the crowd that was attracted by the incident of the arrest.

Geer is an exceptionally husky felfever and 4 of tuberculosis. From class reported recently the evidence that measles and whooping cough are now on the wane is apparent.

poned.

It is not definitely known just what damage the town will be liable to undergo by the flowing of the section mentioned, but there seemed to be an impression among those at the meeting that it would be well to investigate the matter before selling flowage rights to the cotton company.

The selectmen were authorized to The selectmen were authorized to make a survey for the purpose of determining how much damage the flow-ing of the meadows is apt to cause.

BLACKLISTED MAN Given Liquor by Joseph Potvin, Who Was Fined $29.09.

Joseph Potvin, a resident in the north end of the city, was fined $20 on two counts and costs amounting to $9.49, making a total of $29.49, by Deputy Judge L. H. Fuller in the city court Monday afternoon.

The penalty was inflicted on Potvin after he had been adjudged guilty of serving whiskey on two different occasions for Herbert Osier, a blacklisted man.

Geer was advised to do this by some of the crowd that was attracted by the incident of the arrest.

Geer is an exceptionally husky fellow and slipped the twisters off his wrists as easily as if they had been strands of baby ribbon.

A beautiful booklet, "Worcester Heart of the Commonwealth," recently issued to advertise that city, devote wo pages to picturing the model plan of the Royal Worcester Corset com-pany, and its president and founder, David Hale Fanning, a native of the town of Griswold. The Royal Wor cester advertisement is one of the most artistic and effective in the elegantly gotten up book.

Mr. Fanning recently donated $1,000 to the Jewett City Soldiers' Monument fund.
